

Autumn Term 2017 Key Stage 2

Literacy

Inc reading and writing

- Read Write Inc phonics Programme
- Literacy and Language
- Spelling and Grammar
- Poetry
- Iron Age diary
- Iron Age Stories

Understanding of the World Science

- Identify and name common animals
- Parts of the human body, Senses
- Life cycles, Food chains
- Healthy living. Exercise and the digestive system, Nutrition, teeth
- Earth Magic Programme

History

- Local history, stone/iron age, Brough Law Yeaving Bell, burials and archaeology (Chris Burgess).
- Africa

Geography

- River settlements
- Transport routes, road users, comparison with Alnwick
- East Africa and Kenya

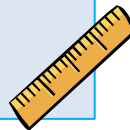

Computing

- Hour of code, algorithms

Mathematics

- Measurement -weight, height, length
- Distance, position and direction
- Northumbrian Counting
- Swahili Counting
- Water carrying –problem and solution

Who are we?

Expressive Arts and Design

- Field sketching, photography, maps
- Cup and ring, rock art, clay pots
- Cave paintings
- Baking with eggs from our hens
- Cooking – local recipes and produce
- Drama with Mrs Thomson
- African Art and music (drumming)
- African cooking
- Charanga music

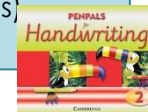

Communication and language

- Spanish
- Stone/iron age communication
- Northumbrian Dialect
- Swahili
- Weekly Drama sessions
- Christmas Production

Physical Development

- Swimming (Rothbury)
- Football
- Walks in our locality
- Dance
- Earth Magic Programme
- Outdoor paly equipment – balance
- Handwriting (Penpals)

Personal Social and Emotional development

- School code of conduct including agreement on behaviour
- Developing our home school agreement
- Caring for our hens
- Stone/iron age day
- Developing Countries – poverty, war, farming, famine and drought
- Cultures and differences
- Africa Day

Autumn Term 2017 Key Stage 1

Literacy

Inc reading and writing

- Read Write Inc phonics Programme
- Y1 Stories with pattern and rhyme; Stories in familiar settings; Labels Lists and Captions

Understanding of the World Science

- Identify and name common animals
- Parts of the human body, Senses
- Life cycles, Food chains
- Healthy living. Exercise and the digestive system, Nutrition, teeth
- Earth Magic Programme

History

- Local history, stone/iron age, Brough Law Yeaving Bell, burials and archaeology (Chris Burgess).
- Africa

Geography

- River settlements
- Transport routes, road users, comparison with Alnwick
- East Africa and Kenya

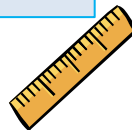

Computing

- Hour of code, algorithms

Mathematics

- Y1 counting and place value, addition and subtraction
- Properties of 2d and 3d shapes
- Measurement of length

Who are we?

Expressive Arts and Design

- Field sketching, photography, maps
- Cup and ring, rock art, clay pots
- Cave paintings
- Baking with eggs from our hens
- Cooking – local recipes and produce
- Drama with Mrs Thomson
- African Art and music (drumming)
- African cooking
- Charanga music

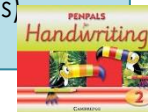

Communication and language

- Spanish
- Stone/iron age communication
- Northumbrian Dialect
- Swahili
- Weekly Drama sessions
- Christmas Production

Physical Development

- Swimming (Rothbury)
- Football
- Walks in our locality
- Dance
- Earth Magic Programme
- Outdoor play equipment – balance
- Handwriting (Penpals)

Personal Social and Emotional development

- School code of conduct including agreement on behaviour
- Developing our home school agreement
- Caring for our hens
- Stone/iron age day
- Developing Countries – poverty, war, farming, famine and drought
- Cultures and differences
- Africa Day

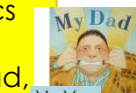

Autumn Term 2017 Foundation Stage

Literacy

Inc reading and writing

- Read Write Inc phonics Programme
- Sounds Great – Early Phonics Skills
- My family - My Mum, My Dad, My Brother by Anthony Browne
- Superworm, Sudden Hill

My Mum

Understanding of the World Science

- Looking at changes in our environment, seasonal changes
- Bees – Forest School

History

- What games did our Mum and Dad like to play when they were our age?

- Africa

Geography

- River settlements
- Transport routes, road users, comparison with Alnwick
- East Africa and Kenya

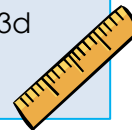

Computing

- Using age appropriate apps and programs, navigating through
- Mouse and keyboard skills

Mathematics

- Counting to 10 and then 20
- Recognising numerals to 10 and then 20
- Counting on and back
- Practical addition and subtraction
- Naming the common 2d and 3d shapes

Who are we?

Expressive Arts and Design

- Autumn arts and crafts
- Cup and ring, rock art, clay pots
- Cave paintings
- Baking with eggs from our hens
- Cooking – local recipes and produce
- Drama with Mrs Thomson
- African Art and music (drumming)
- African cooking
- Charanga music

Communication and language

- Spanish
- Weekly Drama sessions
- Christmas Production

Physical Development

- Swimming (Rec only)
- Football
- Walks in our locality
- Dance
- Outdoor play equipment – balance
- Handwriting (Nelson)
- Forest School

Personal Social and Emotional development

- School code of conduct including agreement on behaviour
- Developing our home school agreement
- Playing cooperatively
- Sharing
- What to do if I am cross